

Festival Schedule

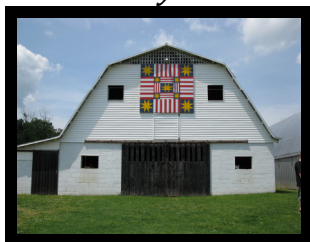

Monday, September 19, 2016

Deliver Quilts to Algood Senior Citizen Center
125 4th Ave. N. 7:45 am to 3:00 pm

Thursday, September 22, 2016
Festival Preview Dinner and Auction

5:00 pm - 6:00 pm Quilt Preview
Algood United Methodist Church and Trinity Assembly Church Building
6:00 pm - 8:00 pm Dinner & Auction
Algood Methodist Family Life Center
Tickets $25 - must be purchased in advance
Call John Allen at 931-252-2755 for tickets

Don't Miss the Home and Barn Tour!
Thursday ONLY

Join us for a unique and exclusive all-day tour of homes, barns and historic buildings with quilts and quilt patterns -- return for Preview Dinner and Auction at the Family Life Building This all inclusive tour includes lunch, transportation, Preview Dinner and admission to the Festival for both days. A photographer's delight! Call 931-979-3262 for reservations. $59 per person.

Quilt Show & Merchant's Mall

Purchase Tickets in Advance ($5) at Algood Senior Citizens' Center
Group Rate - buy 10 tickets by Sept. 1 for $40
Advance Tickets $5 per person for two-day event
At the event $6 per person for two-day event

Register at Trinity Church, Fuel Center
212 Pennock St.
(Follow the signs for registration)

Quilts on Display Friday and Saturday, September 23-24

Algood City Hall

Underground Railroad Quilts and the Central Tennessee Model Railroaders Miniature Railway on exhibit just for the Quilt Festival
Free entrance to all at Algood City Hall

Trinity Church

Fuel Student Center, 212 Pennock St.
Registration. Special Exhibition and Classes

Honoring the Ladies Who Quilt at the Senior Center"
Classes will be offered Friday and Saturday at the Fuel Center at 10a.m. and 2p.m.

LEARN TO PAINT YOUR OWN WOODEN 'QUILT' $15
A choice of (3) small 3"x3" squares suitable for birdhouses or (1) 12" square for a porch quilt. All supplies (wood squares, brushes, paint and sealer) furnished with a choice of patterns.

Paula Stover, painter of 'barn quilts' in the Upper Cumberland, is a quilter and crafter. She is the 5th generation still living on Ivy Hill Farm, a Tennessee Century Farm in Overton County. Paula has painted 70+ quilts ranging from 3 inches to 8 feet. She also serves as director of the Overton County Heritage Museum in Livingston, TN.

Trinity Church

Multi-Purpose Room

Main Exhibition of Quilts in Competition

Algood United Methodist Church

Antique Quilts

Algood Family Event Center

Quilts of the Needham Family – Aunt Nola Mae Needham.

Signature HealthCARE of Putnam County
Quilts of staff, residents and families

Burton's Chapel United Methodist Church

Saluting Veterans Quilts

Fish Fry, Friday Only 4:30pm – 6:30pm at the Church

White Plains House

Quilts of Friends of White Plains

Vendor's Mall

Trinity Assembly Church

At the Fuel Center and Multi-Purpose Room
All Vendors will be located where quilts are displayed
Many vendors will be demonstrating quilting techniques at their booths -- You may also purchase jewelry, quilting supplies, crafts and a wide variety of things vendors will have for sale..

Outdoor Crafters and Artists Exhibits

Trinity Church Property (near Registration)
Artists and crafters displaying products for sale.

Lunch

Burton's Chapel United Methodist Church

Lunch both days from 11:00a to 1:30p

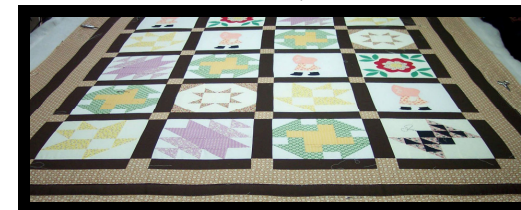

Saluting Veterans Quilts

Algood Senior Center Country Store

125 4th Avenue North

Quilts and needlework made by Senior Citizens homemade baked goods, craft and quilting supplies.

Raffle Quilt

Raffle Quilt Tickets available at
At the Senior Citizen Center in Algood

Raffle Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5
Tickets available at the Algood Senior Citizen Center.

www.quilt-festival.com